Fantastic £17,689 for Refugee Action

Over the past year, Sevenoaks School students have been involved in a variety of fundraising events and activities to raise money for Refugee Action. They certainly did an outstanding job and raised a total of £17,689. The money will help Refugee Action continue with their amazing work supporting refugees and asylum seekers struggling with the asylum process, poverty and homelessness.

Old Sennokian and Chief Executive, Stephen Hale, visited the school last year to give an inspirational talk to students about the charity, and how their donation will be used to help refugees and asylum seekers in the UK.
