EXPLORE THE AREA

Sevenoaks School sits minutes from the High Street, within walking distance of shops, coffee bars and restaurants.

The Bligh's Meadow Shopping Centre hosts a selection of cafes, from bubble tea to patisseries. You can also visit the Stag Cinema and a number of popular chain restaurants like Wagamamma and Nandos.

Behind the school is Knole, one of England's largest country houses, set within a thousand-acre deer park and managed by the National Trust. The park is open to the public for walking, running and recreation, and is accessible from the school grounds. When the sun comes out this makes for a nice break from studies.

Sevenoaks station is one mile from the school, making the town just 30 minutes from central London.
