SEVENOAKS SCHOOL

TEACHER OF ENGLISH

FULL-TIME FROM JANUARY 2027

THE SCHOOL

Founded in 1432, Sevenoaks enjoys a global reputation as a centre of academic excellence and a flagship school for the International Baccalaureate. A co-educational day and boarding school, it offers a stimulating, intellectually demanding and balanced education for over 1200 students from ages 11 to 18.

Sevenoaks is one of the world's leading IB schools, having taught the International Baccalaureate for over 40 years. For nearly 20 years, all Sixth Form students have taken the full IB Diploma with consistently outstanding academic results which are testament to the school's experience and commitment to the programme.

Sevenoaks is the top large-cohort IB school in the UK and among the top five globally. In recent years it has been the second highest achieving large-cohort IB school in the world. Sevenoaks is also the top fully co-ed all-IB boarding school in the UK, according to Best Schools (Education Advisers Ltd). The Sunday Times named Sevenoaks School Co-educational Independent Secondary School of the Year in 2023.

In 2024, the average Diploma score was 39.6 points, about eight points above the world average. The Higher Education department supported applications of 245 students to universities in the UK, USA, Canada, Europe and Hong Kong with an outstanding 97 per cent progressing to their firm or insurance choice university. The majority attend Oxbridge, London universities, or other Russell Group universities such as Bristol or Durham. We support about 20 per cent of our students with applications to international universities, with increasing numbers going to North America, specifically Ivy League and top universities in the United States.

Academic excellence is achieved by bright, motivated students, inspired by highly qualified and dedicated teachers in well-resourced classrooms. Sevenoaks delivers a broad, balanced programme of study through exciting teaching. Strengthened by wise pastoral care, Sevenoaks students work hard to satisfy their natural curiosity and extend themselves far above and beyond the core curriculum. The school's international outlook promotes the principles of tolerance and open-mindedness. Regular assemblies, tutor group meetings and a programme of talks help to foster the social and emotional welfare of our students, while a long tradition of service and local and international charity projects advances a core set of values across the student body.

The school is one of the largest employers in the local area, employing staff in a wide variety of roles, and aiming to be an employer of choice for top staff from around the world. We offer our staff a competitive range of benefits and are in the process of developing a range of progressive employment policies and opportunities for personal and professional development All Sevenoaks staff are encouraged to enjoy facilities such as our sports centre and pool, attend performances at our performing arts centre, and get involved in service activities within the local community. We strive to promote the positive mental and physical health of all staff, and are committed to ensuring that equality, diversity and inclusion are at the very heart of our culture and community. We believe every member of the school community should feel welcomed, included and valued.

THE CAMPUS

The school is situated in the Kent market town of Sevenoaks and has a prime position at the top of the high street. The 100-acre site, which includes several listed buildings and attractive gardens, is beautifully landscaped and adjoins the medieval deer park of Knole. London is only a 30-minute train ride away and the school is in commutable distance from several Kent towns including Orpington, Tonbridge, Tunbridge Wells, Bromley, Kings Hill and Dartford.

Recent developments on campus include a superb sports centre, a state-of-the-art performing arts centre, a world-class Science and Technology Centre and a Global Study Centre for the Sixth Form. Our campus has earned several architectural awards, including two RIBA National Awards (2019, 2022).

With eight distinctive and comfortable boarding houses, our boarding community is fun, friendly and busy.

TEACHING AT SEVENOAKS

Teaching here is immensely rewarding: we work in high-performing teams towards a shared endeavour. Everyone appointed to teach at Sevenoaks School is expected to engage actively in all aspects of our broad and well-rounded education, across a six day week, with lessons on Saturday mornings and sport in the afternoons.

We want all our students to enjoy their subjects, to be inspired by their teachers and to become independent, lifelong learners. Teachers are enthusiastic and well-qualified graduates. We have an exceptionally lively, talented and committed staff body. We welcome applications from experienced teachers and newly-qualified teachers, but can also provide training including PGCE for those joining the profession at whatever stage. All new staff undertake a comprehensive induction programme. Sevenoaks is committed to supporting its staff with training and professional development tailored to staff needs and interests.

All teachers are involved in proactive pastoral care. All teachers participate in the co-curriculum and, as our outreach activities expand, contribute to our work with local students and schools. Teachers at Sevenoaks are innovative and forward-thinking many are involved in the Institutes of Teaching and Learning, Higher Education and Professional Insight, and Service and Partnerships, shaping further development and initiatives for students and staff alike.

CURRICULUM

At every stage, we offer a broad, deep, and integrated curriculum. Every pupil is encouraged to be curious, creative, critically aware, and to develop his or her passion and talent to the full. Life is fast-paced, dynamic, and expectations are high. At the same time, the school seeks to cultivate in its students the habit of reflecting on their learning, and on how they contribute to society more broadly. Ambitious and principled, confident, and compassionate, our students are prepared for leadership and teamwork in the wider world.

Regular assemblies, tutor group meetings and a programme of talks help the social and emotional understanding in our students, and a long tradition of voluntary service and local and international charity projects advances a core set of values across the student body.

In Years 7-11 all students take courses in critical thinking developed by the school. The Middle School Diploma, launched for Year 9 in September 2017, recognises the learning that takes place both within and outside the classroom and is built around seven core values: creativity, independent learning, critical thinking, international understanding, collaboration, self-awareness, and social responsibility.

All of the 500-plus Sixth Form students pursue the International Baccalaureate Diploma, a programme the school has delivered for 40 years. The Diploma is the best preparation for university and for work in a world of global competition. Even more important, it genuinely develops a rich inner life in our students, opening their minds to connections and possibilities within and across the subject disciplines.

It is no surprise that our students leave Sevenoaks to study a wide range of courses in the UK and around the world. Each year all leaving students progress to the world's top universities, including Oxford and Cambridge, and around one in five take places at leading US and international universities. They do so with an enlarged capacity for independent thought and intellectual risk-taking, a strong appetite for learning, and equipped with the skills and personal qualities conducive to a happy and successful life.

THE ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

The department is currently made up of eighteen well-qualified and enthusiastic teachers, some of whom are part time or have other responsibilities in the school. Every student in the school is taught by a specialist English teacher throughout their time at Sevenoaks. The department is generously resourced and based in its own suite of classrooms and offices – the Swanzy building, which is located in the centre of the school. Colleagues pursue a wide range of special interests within the subject, and examination results are excellent at all levels. The sharing of ideas is strongly encouraged, and the atmosphere within the department is scholarly, supportive, friendly, and collaborative.

The department has developed its own schemes of work for the first three years (Years 7-9), based upon the requirements of the National Curriculum. All students in Years 10 and 11 study IGCSE English Language and Literature (Pearson Edexcel IGCSE).

In the Sixth Form, every student pursues the International Baccalaureate, where English is available either at Higher or Standard Level. In addition we offer a Standard Level Literature & Performance course, which combines elements of English and Theatre. The courses offer the opportunity to teach a wide range of texts either written in English or in translation.

Outside the classroom, the department extends students' experiences of creative writing, literary lectures, reading groups, and debating. Authors regularly visit different year groups throughout the year. While Drama is a separate department in the school there is considerable collaboration between the two departments. For those who are keen to get involved, there are several productions every year in the superbly equipped Sackville Theatre. There are also regular play-trips to London theatres and literary tours within the UK.

English-related degrees are popular choices for our students when they leave Sevenoaks School, which is encouraged through an extensive programme of extension classes and trips. Both studying and teaching English at Sevenoaks School are exciting and rewarding experiences – the department is a vibrant and enjoyable place to work and is committed to engendering a love of learning in all students, not just impressive qualifications.

THE POST

The successful candidate will be an enthusiastic and well qualified graduate. We seek applicants with enthusiasm and imagination, who are willing to be part of a team. The successful candidate will be expected to be able to teach across the year groups, though efforts will be made in the timetable to reflect an individual's strengths. The new appointee can expect a considerable amount of Sixth Form teaching. He or she will help to develop a culture within the school that encourages reading, writing and the enjoyment of literature. We welcome applications from teachers new to the profession as well as those with teaching experience. The opportunity to train for PGCE may be available. A commitment to excellent pastoral care and enriching co-curricular and outreach activities is also expected.
